

What comes under Air India Ticket Change Policy?

Air India is the transporter of India who works from its centre point at Indira Gandhi International Airport in New Delhi, India. It is the biggest transporter in India as far as the number of destinations served. In this post, we would talk about a total point by point outline of the Air India change flight policy.

Air India Ticket Change Policy

Air India reservations offer the most extreme adaptability to the traveler by offering reasonable change charges and limitless change. Here are the significant features from the Air India change flight policy.

According to Air India's change flight policy, if there should be an occurrence of a timetable change, travelers are permitted to make changes to their booking without causing an Air India change charge.

According to Air India's name change on the ticket rule, travelers are permitted to address first and last names up to three characters.

According to Air India's change flight policy, just one change for each traveler per booking is permitted. Air India flight change expense would be postponed if the travelers demand an adjustment of booking within 24 hours.

Air India Date Change Within 24 hours

Air India travelers would have the option to drop their reservation without causing any Air India date change cost within 24 hours of booking a flight ticket. The traveler would have a choice of making alterations just as making changes to their booking without paying any Air India flight change cost inside 24 hours of booking. Travelers need to pay 50 USD for homegrown travel, and 120 USD for worldwide travel as Air India changes the booking expense.

How to change the date of the Air India flight?

Air India Flight Date Change Online –

1. Once you booked a reservation on the web.
2. You can change/drop your flight by means of the 'My Booking' area.

Air India Flight Date Change via telephone –

1. Keep your six-digit booking reference or 13-digit ticket number.
2. Request the specialist to give an audit from the Air India flight change policy and expense to make changes to your booking.

Air India Flight Date Change at the air terminal –

To demand an Air India Flight date change at the air terminal, all you need to do is –

1. Visit the Air India reservation counter at the air terminal
2. You can talk one-on-one to the Air India work area chief and request them to change your booking. You can pay the Air India ticket change cost for modifications.