

How to setup a printer using 123.hp.com/setup?

To learn 123.hp.com/setup process, here is the article to read. Execute the setup to start operating the Printer. Check out 123.hp.com/setup and troubleshooting guidelines below if you are a new user.

To get outstanding device performance, HP is the right choice

- Unpack your HP printer from the package as the first step
- Verify if the hardware accessories are provided with the package
- If yes, locate the port on your printer to connect the necessary cables
- After completing the hardware setup, access the device control panel
- Select the network settings
- If HP is your choice, we suggest the connection modes such as WPS or Wireless setup wizard

123.hp.com/setup to activate the network connection WPS

- If WPS is your choice to connect HP printer to the network, press the wireless icon on your Printer and WPS Icon on your Router
- Access the wireless setup menu
- Select the connection modes such as WPS push button or Pin
- Then run the onscreen commands that appear on your screen
- If WPS pin method is your preference, you must enter the Pin by accessing the router configuration utility tool

Wireless setup wizard

- To execute Wireless setup wizard settings, go to the device control panel
- Select the settings and start answering the wizard guidelines one by one
- Find and choose your network from the list that appear on your device screen
- Providing the wireless network SSID and Password is the next step
- Execute the onscreen commands that appear on your device display screen

You can also check the compatibility of Wi-Fi direct feature to connect HP printer to the network

123.hp.com/setup on Windows and Mac

Now let us begin 123.hp.com/setup on Windows and Mac

- Access the settings, Devices, and Printers, If you are a Windows user
- Then select the Printer to add
- Mac users can navigate to the system preference settings and tap on the icon, Printers, and Scanners to add HP printer.

123.hp.com/setup errors - Troubleshooting

Check out the troubleshooting tips below to fix 123.hp.com/setup errors

- You can verify 123.hp.com/setup steps
- Check the network speed
- Make certain that your Printer software is up to date. If not, access the software download page to download and install the printer software
- Meanwhile confirm if the cables connected between your Printer, Computer is secure.

Please dial the Toll-free number @+1-888-214-1820 or visit us @ 123.hp.com/setup assistance.