

Community Forum is an integrated part of the YouthForesight knowledge platform, powered by social media-inspired design, modern features, and plug-in apps. It provides a space for practitioners and stakeholders to connect, communicate and share knowledge and opportunities on key youth interventions.

Key Objectives

- Establish a global community of practitioners and change-makers where members are able to speak openly, share and seek knowledge and insights
- Share latest knowledge product and resources on YouthForesight platform and beyond
- Facilitate learning by inviting technical experts on key thematic areas to moderate discussions

Join the Forum Today!

- Access
Go to community.youthforesight.org/ and log in to the forum with your credentials
- Create
For networking with other members, set up your profile by adding information about your work and expertise
- Follow
Browse topics and groups and join sub-communities creating lasting impact for young people
- Engage
Connect with other members, share your work, call for action and other engagement opportunities
- Share
Invite your colleagues and contacts to join the community

Click to watch a quick video guide

Member profile

Create your profile, explore the networking options and participate in community activities

Notification tools

Personalized notifications and settings for display languages, updates and more

Multiple content types

Write articles, ask questions, submit answers, participate in polls, post images and videos

Content categorization

Categorized content to enable seamless resource discovery with topics

Groups

Create groups to operate your private spaces, micro-interest groups and everything in between

Single sign-on

Login to the community forum smoothly with your YouthForesight or Decent Jobs for Youth credentials

JOIN US

Visit:
community.youthforesight.org/

Contact:
info@youthforesight.org