

Self Confidence Creed

Analyze this creed and you will notice how freely the personal pronoun is used. It starts off with the affirmation of Self-confidence, which is perfectly proper. No person could make this creed their own without developing the positive attitude that would attract to them people who would aid them in their struggle for success. You must practice it! Read it over and over until you know it by heart. Then repeat it once a day until you have literally transformed your mental make-up. Keep a copy of it before you as a daily reminder of your pledge to practice it. By doing so you will be making efficient use of the principle of Auto-suggestion as a means of developing Self-Confidence.

- I believe in myself.
- I believe in those who work with me.
- I believe in my employer.
- I believe in my friends.
- I believe in my family.
- I believe that God will lend me everything I need with which to succeed if I do my best to earn it through faithful and honest service.
- I believe in prayer and will never close my eyes to sleep without praying for divine guidance to the end that I will be patient with other people and tolerant with those who do not believe as I do.
- I believe that success is the result of intelligent effort and does not depend upon the luck or sharp practices or double-crossing friends, fellow men or my employer.
- I believe that I will get out of life exactly what I put into it, therefore I will be careful to conduct myself toward others as I would want them to act toward me.
- I will not slander those whom I do not like.
- I will not slight my work no matter what I may see others doing.
- I will render the best service of which I am capable because I have pledged myself to succeed in life and I know that success is always the result of conscientious and efficient effort.
- Finally, I will forgive those who offend me because I realize that I shall sometimes offend others and I will need their forgiveness.
